

George Voinovich High School is a tuition-free public charter school that uses innovative strategies to support students on the road to graduation. Through personalized plans, flexible-credit, and a unique 3-day schedule, GVHS provides students with the flexibility they need to achieve their high school diploma. GVHS offers both online instruction and in-person classes in our Cleveland location and a full support team to help students achieve both their academic and personal goals. We are committed to meeting students where they are and helping them work at their own pace to achieve academic and personal success.
